

Being Translation Of The Anabasis: A Classic Work of Historical Literature by Xenophon

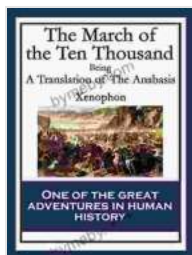

About the Book

Being Translation Of The Anabasis is a classic work of historical literature by Xenophon, an Athenian historian, soldier, and philosopher. The book recounts the expedition of Cyrus the Younger, a Persian prince, who attempted to overthrow his brother, King Artaxerxes II, in 401 BC.

Xenophon was a member of the Greek mercenary army that Cyrus hired to fight for him. After Cyrus was killed in battle, the Greeks found themselves stranded in hostile territory. Xenophon was elected one of the generals of the army and led the Greeks on a long and arduous retreat back to Greece.
