Glee was a phenomenon. The musical comedy-drama series, which aired on Fox from 2009 to 2015, followed a group of high school students who joined their school's glee club. The show was a critical and commercial success, winning numerous awards, including 19 Primetime Emmy Awards and a Golden Globe Award.

The cast of Glee became household names, with many of them going on to successful careers in film and television. In this book, we go behind the scenes with the cast and learn about their experiences on the show. We talk to them about their favorite moments, their biggest challenges, and what they've been up to since Glee ended.

The Cast

- Lea Michele played Rachel Berry, the ambitious and talented lead singer of the glee club.

- Cory Monteith played Finn Hudson, the quarterback of the football team who joins the glee club to win over Rachel.
- Chris Colfer played Kurt Hummel, a flamboyant and openly gay student who is bullied for his sexuality.
- Amber Riley played Mercedes Jones, a sassy and talented singer who is often overlooked.
- Kevin McHale played Artie Abrams, a wheelchair-bound student who is a talented dancer.
- Jenna Ushkowitz played Tina Cohen-Chang, a shy and insecure student who develops a crush on Artie.
- Mark Salling played Noah "Puck" Puckerman, a bad boy with a heart of gold.
- Naya Rivera played Santana Lopez, a cheerleader and closeted lesbian who is often mean to others.
- Heather Morris played Brittany S. Pierce, a dim-witted but lovable cheerleader.
- Chord Overstreet played Sam Evans, a transfer student who joins the glee club in Season 3.

The Interviews
