Do you ever wonder about the big questions in life? Like, what is the meaning of life? Why do we die? What happens after we die? Where do we come from?

Kids have a lot of questions about life and death. They want to know why things happen the way they do and what the meaning of it all is. Adults often have a hard time answering these questions, but Zen masters have a unique way of looking at the world that can help us understand life's big mysteries.

In Kids Questions And Zen Answers About Life, Death, Family, Friendship And Every, Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh answers some of the most common questions that kids have about life and death. He does so in a simple and straightforward way, using stories and examples that kids can easily understand.

Thich Nhat Hanh teaches that life is a precious gift and that we should cherish every moment. He also teaches that death is a natural part of life and that we should not be afraid of it. He believes that when we die, we simply return to the universe and become one with everything.

Kids Questions And Zen Answers About Life, Death, Family, Friendship And Every is a book that can help kids understand the big questions in life. It is a book that can help them to live more peacefully and joyfully.
