Olive the Other Reindeer is a beloved Christmas story about a dog who dreams of pulling Santa's sleigh. Written by Vivian Walsh and illustrated by J. Otto Seibold, the book was first published in 1997 and has since become a holiday classic.

The story follows Olive, a small and unassuming dog who lives in the small town of Hooterville. Olive has always dreamed of being a reindeer and pulling Santa's sleigh on Christmas Eve. However, she knows that she is different from the other reindeer, who are all large and strong. Despite her differences, Olive never gives up on her dream.

One Christmas Eve, Olive's dream finally comes true. Santa Claus is short one reindeer, and Olive is given the chance to pull his sleigh. Olive is overjoyed, and she does a wonderful job. She helps Santa deliver presents to all the children in the world, and she proves that anything is possible if you believe in yourself.
