To get started, you'll need:

- Construction paper in various colors
- Markers or crayons
- Scissors
- Glue

Once you have your materials gathered, follow these steps:

1. Cut out a variety of Easter egg shapes from the construction paper.
2. Write a different letter of the alphabet on each egg.
3. Color the eggs with markers or crayons.
4. Cut out a strip of paper for each egg and write the corresponding color on it.
5. Glue the color strips to the eggs.

Now that you have your Easter eggs ready, it's time to play! Here are a few ways to use them to practice letters and colors:

- Have your child match the eggs to the correct letters on a piece of paper.
- Have your child sort the eggs by color.
- Have your child identify the letter or color on each egg.
- Use the eggs to create simple words or sentences.

This activity is a great way to help your child learn and develop important skills. It's also a lot of fun, so your child is sure to enjoy it. So break out the construction paper and markers, and get ready to have some Easter fun!

Here are some additional tips for making this activity even more fun and educational:

- Make the eggs different sizes and shapes to add some variety.
- Use different colors of construction paper and markers to make the eggs more visually appealing.

- Write the letters and colors in different fonts and sizes to make them more interesting to look at.
- Encourage your child to use their imagination and creativity to come up with their own ways to play with the eggs.

With a little creativity, this simple Easter activity can be a great way to help your child learn and grow.
