The Running Back is a rising star, a humble and hard-working athlete who has fought his way to the top. The Prima Donna is a larger-than-life personality, a gifted wide receiver with a flair for the dramatic.

When these two very different players are forced to work together, sparks fly. The Running Back resents the Prima Donna's arrogance, while the Prima Donna disdains the Running Back's lack of flash.

But as the season progresses, the two players begin to realize that they have more in common than they thought. Both are driven by a deep love of the game, and both are willing to do whatever it takes to win.

As the stakes get higher, the Running Back and the Prima Donna must find a way to put their differences aside and work together. The fate of their team, and their own careers, depends on it.

Praise for The Running Back and the Prima Donna
