1. Al Fahidi Fort

Al Fahidi Fort is the oldest building in Dubai, and it is a great place to learn about the city's history. The fort was built in 1787 to defend the city from invaders, and it has since been used as a palace, a prison, and a museum. Today, the fort houses the Dubai Museum, which tells the story of Dubai's past, from its humble beginnings as a fishing village to its present-day status as a global metropolis.

2. Bastakiya Quarter

Bastakiya Quarter is a historic neighborhood that is located near Al Fahidi Fort. The neighborhood is home to traditional Emirati houses, wind towers, and narrow streets. It is a great place to wander around and soak up the atmosphere of old Dubai.

3. Dubai Creek

Dubai Creek is a natural waterway that divides the city into two parts. The creek is a popular spot for boating and fishing, and it is also home to a number of historical landmarks, such as the Al Maktoum House and the Grand Mosque. You can take a traditional abra boat ride across the creek for a unique way to see the city.

4. Deira Souk

Deira Souk is one of the oldest and largest souks in Dubai. The souk is a maze of narrow streets and stalls, where you can find everything from gold and jewelry to spices and perfumes. It is a great place to haggle for a bargain, and it is also a great way to experience the traditional culture of Dubai.

5. Al Seef

Al Seef is a new development that is located on the banks of Dubai Creek. The development features traditional Emirati architecture and design, and it is home to a number of shops, restaurants, and cafes. It is a great place to relax and enjoy the views of the creek.

6. Satwa

Satwa is a bustling neighborhood that is located near Dubai Marina. The neighborhood is home to a large expat community, and it is known for its diverse range of restaurants and shops. It is a great place to go for a walk and explore the different cultures of Dubai.
